

Unlocks Reading For All Learners

SPEAKERS SERIES 2017

The Active Reading Center (ARC) is the premier resource for struggling readers in the Bay Area. We are physician recommended and have been opening the doors to literacy success since 1991

Date: Monday, April 17

Location: ARC
25 Hillcroft Way ,
Walnut Creek, CA 94597
(inside Congregation B'nai Tikvah building)

Time: 6:30 - 8:00 pm

The IEP Process

(Individualized Educational Plan)

RSVP required, Free event
(adults only)

For more information contact
ACTIVE READING CENTER
Ph. (925) 944-5559

www.activereadingcenter.org

A non-profit company

ACTIVE READING CENTER

Presents

A Free Resource Meeting
For Parents and Teachers

Learn about the IEP Process (Individualized Educational Plan)

FEATURED SPEAKER:

LINDA WURZBACH

Linda Wurzbach is a Special Education Advocate, providing expertise for over 30 years in education laws and regulations and helping parents, professionals, and teachers to collectively work together on children's learning issues.

TOPICS:

- ❖ Steps you can take with your school when your child has learning and attention issues.
- ❖ Steps to take when you're formally requesting to have your child evaluated.
- ❖ Understanding the evaluation process and what to expect.
- ❖ Private vs. school evaluations: Pros and Cons
- ❖ How do you obtain an IEP for your child?
- ❖ What to expect at an IEP meeting?